

Assistant Professor of Mathematics Education

San Diego State University's College of Education: School of Teacher Education

The School of Teacher Education at San Diego State University announces a full-time tenure-track position in Mathematics Education at the Assistant Professor level beginning in August 2024. We are looking for a colleague to join our collaborative group.

The School of Teacher Education, which is in the College of Education, offers elementary and secondary credential programs, master's degree programs, and doctoral degree programs. The College of Education is a vibrant community of scholarly engagement and professional practice where diversity, equity, and inclusion drive innovation across our teaching, learning, counseling, research, and community service endeavors. We draw on our strengths as a college within a Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) — uniquely positioned in the San Diego-Tijuana transborder region and ancestral land of the Kumeyaay Nation — to effect educational and social change at local, regional, national, and international levels.

SDSU's Center for Research in Mathematics and Science Education (CRMSE) provides a unique environment to encourage and support research collaboration among STEM Ed faculty in the College of Education and the College of Sciences. Faculty also have opportunities to participate in doctoral and master's programs in mathematics and science education and STEM leadership.

Candidate Requirements

- Earned doctorate in mathematics education or closely related field;
- Evidence of or potential for strong scholarship commensurate with experience;
- Record of or commitment to effective teaching;
- Commitment to social justice and equity for all learners;
- PK-12 Teaching Experience (or extensive experience working with teachers and PK-12 students) in racially, culturally, linguistically, and/or economically diverse classrooms.

We are seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups. Candidates must satisfy two or more of the eight Building on Inclusive Excellence (BIE) criteria. Candidates that meet BIE criteria:

- (a) are committed to engaging in service with underrepresented populations within the discipline,
- (b) have demonstrated knowledge of barriers for underrepresented students and faculty within the discipline,
- (c) have experience or have demonstrated commitment to teaching and mentoring underrepresented students,
- (d) have experience or have demonstrated commitment to integrating understanding of underrepresented populations and communities into research,
- (e) have experience in or have demonstrated commitment to extending knowledge of opportunities and challenges in achieving artistic/scholarly success to members of an underrepresented group,
- (f) have experience in or have demonstrated commitment to research that engages underrepresented communities,
- (g) have expertise or demonstrated commitment to developing expertise in cross-cultural communication and collaboration, and/or

(h) have research interests that contribute to diversity and equal opportunity in higher education.

Please indicate in a separate diversity statement how you meet at least two (2) of these criteria. Additional guidance on our BIE program for applicants is here.

Candidate Preferences

- Experience designing and providing programs, teacher professional development, or service opportunities;
- Experience on research teams or with externally funded grants;
- University teaching experience;
- Experience in or openness to innovating aspects of teacher education, such as modes of delivery, international and binational contexts, and clinical practice;
- Commitment to working in field-based, collaborative, culturally sustaining teacher education programs.
